

Winter School
Transforming 21st Century Conflicts
2023 edition

Program

Online via Zoom

Monday 20th February
Day 1 - Understanding conflict(s)

Morning session (9.30-12.30 CET):

- 9.30-10.30 - Institutional greetings & General information and overview (Federico Reggio and Letizia Mingardo, University of Padova, Italy)
- 10.30-11.30 - Welcome & Opening Circle (Alexia Stouraiti, University of Western Attica, Greece)
- 11.30-12.30 - Communicational theory of law & peacebuilding (Angelo Anzalone, University of Cordoba, Spain)

Afternoon session (15.00-18.00 CET):

- Understanding conflict and its complexity (Katarzyna A. Przybyla, Collegium Civitas, Poland)

Tuesday 21st February
Day 2 - Relationships & Dialogue: on (re)building connections

Morning session (9.30-12.30 CET):

- On the idea(l) of Dialogue & Narratives and Images at the roots of the Ancient Legal Imagination (Federico Reggio, University of Padova, Italy)

Afternoon session (I) (15.00-18.00 CET):

- Debate as a tool for critical thinking (Paolo Sommaggio, University of Trento, Italy) & Workshop on the use of debate (facilitated by Paolo Sommaggio, University of Trento, Italy and Federico Reggio, University of Padova, Italy)

or, alternatively, on participants' choice

Afternoon session (II) (15.00-18.00 CET):

- 15.00-16.30 – “Trust Mediators” (Barbara Warwas, The Hague University of Applied Sciences, Netherlands)
- 16.30-17.15 – The role of apology and resilience in conflict transformation (Anna Matczak, The Hague University of Applied Sciences, Netherlands)
- 17.15-18.00 – Peacebuilding in Nepal (Ram Tiwari, Nepal Forum for Restorative Justice)

Wednesday 22nd February

Day 3 - Restorative and transformative approaches to conflicts

Morning session (9.30-12.30 CET):

- 9.30-10.30 - Restorative Justice - its underlying philosophy and challenge (Federico Reggio, University of Padova, Italy)
- 10.30-12.30 - Restorative Justice from a criminal law perspective (Debora Provolo and Elena Cadamuro, University of Padova, Italy)

Afternoon session (I) (15.00-18.00 CET):

- 15.00-16.30 - Racialized Young, British Women as Part of the Restorative Lenience Project: From Intractability to Malleability (Esmorie Miller, Lancaster University Law School, UK)
- 16.30-18.00 - Understanding the role of folklore and underlying cultures in conflict transformation (Immanuel Zarzosang Varte, Indira Gandhi National Tribal University, India)

Thursday 23rd February

Day 4 - Inclusive peacebuilding & conflict transformation

Morning session (9.30-12.30 CET):

- Interactive workshop on the Restorative Dialogue between Electra and Clitemnestra (movie-based) (Katerina Soulou, European Forum for Restorative Justice)

Afternoon session (15.00-18.00 CET):

- 15.00-16.30 - On the social and community psychology of conflicts: the case of environmental conflicts and their multi-layered impact (Marialuisa Menegatto, University of Padova, Italy)

- 16.30-18.00 - Working on skills through Circles and Psychodrama: interactive workshop (Alexia Stouraiti, University of Western Attica, Greece)

Friday 24th February

Day 5 - Conflict transformation in action between reality and virtual spaces

Morning session (9.30-12.30 CET):

- 9.30-10.00 - Digitalisation and the challenge of dematerialized conflicts (Letizia Mingardo, University of Padova, Italy)
- 10.00-11.30 - ODR, claims, reputation: which future for online (civil) justice? (Valentina Morgante, University of Padova, Italy)
- 11.30-12.30 - Psychological Negotiation and post-modern negotiation (Massimo Antonazzi, Crisis Negotiation Future, Italy)

Afternoon session (15.00-18.00 CET):

- 15.00-16.00 - International negotiation (Donatella Daniela Acquati, International School of Negotiation, Italy)
- 16.00-18.00 - Conflict transformation at the policy-, the middle-, and the grassroots-level (Katarzyna A. Przybyla, Collegium Civitas, Poland)

Saturday 25th February

Day 6 - Across time and space: images and words

Morning session (9.30-12.30 CET):

- 9.30-10.30 - At the roots of Western Culture: the shield of Achilles (Federico Reggio, University of Padova, Italy)
- 10.30-12.30 - Traditions and customary practices of justice: where ethnography and criminology meet (Evangelia Koumentaki, Keele University, UK)

Afternoon session, (15.00-18.00 CET):

- Peacebuilding and photography (dialogue with Howard Zehr, emeritus, Eastern Mennonite University, USA)
- Presentation of the book "Still doing life" (special guests: Howard Zehr, emeritus, Eastern Mennonite University, USA and Barb Toews, University of Washington Tacoma, USA)

Moderated by Brunilda Pali, University of Amsterdam, Netherlands and Federico Reggio, University of Padova, Italy

Closing Circle and Final greetings

***

Proponent and Director: Federico Reggio (University of Padova, Italy)

Vice Director: Letizia Mingardo (University of Padova, Italy)

Scientific Committee: Federico Reggio (University of Padova, Italy); Letizia Mingardo (University of Padova, Italy); Debora Provolo (University of Padova, Italy); Marialuisa Menegatto (University of Padova, Italy); Paolo Sommaggio (University of Trento, Italy); Angelo Anzalone (University of Cordoba, Spain); Katarzyna Przybyla (Collegium Civitas, Warsaw, Poland); Barbara Warwas (Le Hague University of Applied Sciences, Netherlands); Anna Matczak (Le Hague University of Applied Sciences, Netherlands); Vassilios Ioakimidis (University of Western Attica, Greece); Brunilda Pali (University of Amsterdam, Netherlands); Immanuel Zarzosang Varte (Indira Gandhi National Tribal University, India).

*“People say it could never happen here. But this is a strange frontier.”
(R. Taylor, Strange Frontier, EMI 1984)*